IMPORTANT LOAN PAYMENT INFORMATION

BORROWER: DON'T SEND YOUR LOAN PAYMENTS TO JUST ANYBODY!

In the news lately there have been disturbing reports of con-artists sending illegal notices to home owners telling them to send their loan payments to a new name or address. Of course, those homeowners who did so got burned - the real lenders still demanded their payments and rightfully so.

To help protect borrowers from this type of scheme, the California Legislature passed a new law. Under this law, we are required to advise you as follows:

1. Send your payments on the loan you are signing for today to this name and address:

<f80>

<f81>

<f82>, <f83>

<f80> is the lender's authorized agent to accept your payments.

2. DO NOT under any circumstances send your payments to another address for <f80> unless and until you receive written notice from <f80>.

3. DO NOT under any circumstances send your payments to another name unless and until you receive written notice from both <f80> and the new servicing agent for the lender. You have no obligation to send payments to the new servicing agent until you receive both notices.

I ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF A COPY OF THIS NOTICE.
